

Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) Report

Introduction

This report provides an overview of the Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) practices, initiatives, and performance metrics. ESG considerations are fundamental to long-term sustainability and the creation of value for stakeholders, including investors, employees, communities, and the environment.

1. Environmental Responsibility

1.1. Climate Change and Carbon Emissions

Our organization is committed to reducing its carbon footprint through energy efficiency, the use of renewable energy, and emissions reductions. Key actions include:

- Energy Efficiency: Implementation of energy-saving technologies in facilities and operations.
- Renewable Energy: Transition to renewable sources such as solar power.
- Carbon Emissions Targets: Commitment to achieving net-zero carbon emissions by 2050.
- Reporting: Disclosure of greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions in line with recognized frameworks such as the Carbon Disclosure Project (CDP).

1.2. Waste Management and Circular Economy

Efforts to minimize waste and promote the circular economy include:

- Waste Reduction: Introduction of policies to minimize waste generation across all operations.
- Recycling Programs: Implementation of company-wide recycling initiatives to ensure responsible waste disposal.
- Circular Economy: Adoption of circular economy principles by promoting re-use and recycling of materials.

1.3. Water and Resource Conservation

Water is a critical resource, and conservation efforts are a priority:

- Water Use Reduction: Installation of water-efficient systems to reduce consumption.
- Our technologies are not using water in operations. Aluprint is not part of a water-stressed region.
- Sustainable Sourcing: Promoting sustainable sourcing of raw materials to reduce resource depletion.

Labour & Human rights

Introduction and purpose

The Aluprint's employees are of great value and the key to our success. The Company must strive to provide a workplace where employees can fulfill their potential in an open and inspirational working environment. We must maintain a strong commitment to high standards that deliver a fair, respectable and safe workplace for all employees in the company. The purpose of this policy is to define the labour and human rights standards to which all employees in Aluprint are entitled.

Scope

This policy applies globally to the management, employees and contract workers of all entities in Aluprint.

Requirements

1. NON-DISCRIMINATION

- 1.1. Aluprint does not tolerate any form of discrimination against our employees based on race, colour, gender, language, religion, political or other opinion, caste, national or social origin, property, birth, union affiliation, sexual orientation, age, disability, or other distinguishing characteristics.
- 1.2. Any employment - related decisions, from hiring to termination and retirement, must be based solely on relevant and objective criteria.

2. FORCED LABOUR

- 2.1. Aluprint does not tolerate any form of forced labour, including bonded labour, indentured labour and slave labour, or human trafficking. Workers must be allowed to move around freely and leave their place of work when their shift ends.

3. CHILD LABOUR

6.1. Aluprint must adhere to all applicable laws or industry standards, whichever may be more stringent, relating to wages, working hours, overtime and benefits.

6.2. Employees must not be required to work more than 60 hours a week, including overtime, on a regular basis (or more than the limits on regular hours and overtime allowed by local laws and regulations). Wages for overtime must be paid in legal tender on a regular basis.

6.3. Wage deductions as a disciplinary measure must not be permitted unless provided for by national law. Employees must be entitled to at least one day off in seven, and must be given reasonable breaks while working and sufficient rest periods between shifts.

6.4. Aluprint must be committed to continuously developing employee skills and capabilities, and to providing opportunities for career advancement.

6.5. In the event of major layoffs, Aluprint must, as a minimum, satisfy applicable laws and industry standards.

7. LEAVE

7.1. Aluprint must ensure that all employees have the right to sick leave and annual holiday, as well as parental leave for employees who have to care for a new-born or newly adopted child as provided by national legislation. Employees who take such leave must not face dismissal or threat of dismissal.

8. EMPLOYEE CONTRACTS / LETTERS

8.1. All employees must be provided with a written, understandable and legally binding employment contract/letter.

9. DEVIATIONS

9.1. No exemptions from this policy can be granted unless there are exceptional circumstances or the policy is obviously not applicable. All requests for exemptions must be made in writing to the policy owner. The policy owner must assess and decide on each request individually. Exemptions must be duly logged and documented.

3. Governance

3.1. Corporate Governance Structure

Aluprint is committed to maintaining a robust governance framework that promotes transparency, accountability, and ethical behavior:

- Board Oversight: Our board of directors plays an active role in overseeing ESG strategies and performance.
- Executive Compensation: Linking executive compensation to ESG performance metrics to align leadership with sustainability goals.
- Ethics and Compliance: A strong code of ethics governs the behavior of all employees, ensuring integrity in all business dealings.

3.2. Risk Management

We manage risks related to environmental and social factors by integrating ESG considerations into our risk management framework:

- ESG Risk Identification: Regular assessment of ESG-related risks, such as climate change, regulatory changes, and reputational risks.
- Sustainability Reporting: Transparent reporting of ESG risks and performance to investors and other stakeholders.
- Cybersecurity and Data Privacy: Protection of data and privacy through robust cybersecurity measures and compliance with global data protection regulations.

3.3. Stakeholder Engagement

We value the input of our stakeholders and regularly engage with them to understand their concerns:

- Shareholder Engagement: Ongoing dialogue with shareholders on ESG performance and governance practices.
- Customer Feedback: Incorporating customer feedback into our ESG initiatives to ensure our practices align with market expectations.
- Supplier Standards: Ensuring our suppliers adhere to ethical and sustainable practices through a rigorous supplier code of conduct.
